

Mitchell Fellows

Visiting Instructor of the Practice in History

Where are you from?

TTexarkana, TX

What topics or subject areas do you enjoy teaching the most?

I enjoy teaching the history of colonial North America the most.

What excites you most about teaching in higher education?

My favorite aspect of teaching is seeing students develop an interest in a topic they had never considered before.

What are your hobbies and other interests?

In my time outside of teaching, I enjoy running, woodworking, and cooking.

What is your main source of motivation or inspiration?

I was inspired to teach by the professors in undergraduate career that made history understandable and interesting. Since then, I have strived to provide that same experience for my students.

Why did you choose UT?

The welcoming nature of the faculty and staff at Utah Tech led me to accept the position.
